ARIZONA DESERT BIGHORN SHEEP SOCIETY

Join Today!

The Arizona Desert Bighorn Sheep Society (ADBSS) was formed in 1967 as a single purpose organization dedicated to increasing the Desert Bighorn Sheep population within Arizona. From its original 64 members, the Society today includes around 1000 people representing a wide cross-section of American society, and also works to conserve Arizona's burgeoning Rocky Mountain Bighorn Population.

ADBSS GOALS

- Develop water resources for bighorn sheep.
- Reintroduce Desert and Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep into suitable historic ranges.
- Prevent encroachment on bighorn sheep habitat.
- Assist government agencies with bighorn sheep population surveys.
- Educate the public about bighorn sheep.
- Promote research necessary to improve the management of bighorn sheep.
- Support efforts to reduce competition with domestic livestock and predators.
- Support and defend hunting as a viable wildlife management tool for present and future generations.

ADBSS ACTIVITIES

We build 4 to 6 waterhole developments each year

Annual Hunters' Clinic and Ram Recognition Banquet

Sheep Transplants

Annual Fundraising Banquet

MEMBERSHIP

Individuals who are interested in promoting the welfare of bighorn sheep are welcome to join the Arizona Desert Bighorn Sheep Society. With membership, you will receive our newsletter, the Ram's Horn, which will keep you posted on the Society's activities. Your moral and financial support is always greatly appreciated. The Society is a 501(c)(3) organization and contributions to the Society are tax deductible as allowable by law.
